

To all of our customers, thank you for your patronage and welcome to our first new product announcement and newsletter of 2012.

Happy New Year! I wish to thank everyone for your support and patronage of SBS4DCC.com in 2011 and to wish you all a healthy, happy, and prosperous 2012.

I will be attending a few local shows this month.

First up is The Worlds Greatest Hobby on Tour show on 1-7/8 at the state fairgrounds. I will not have any tables at this show, just hanging out with Grand Ol' Ngeiners and running a few demo units. Stop by and say "Hi" if can make it.

Next up is the NMRA Noblesville meet on 1-29. I will have a nice selection of locomotives, decoders, and command stations available. Hope to see you there!
